

Ahmed M M Eisa

Ahmed M M Eisa is the Chairman of Gedaref Digital City Organisation, GDCO. He did his B.Sc in Agriculture from Khartoum university in 1981 and then completed M.Sc (Agriculture) from Manhattan Kansas U.S.A in 1985 (Pearl millet). He was appointed the State Minister of Agriculture Sudan in 1988 and was a Parliament (constituent assembly) member from 1986 – 1989. He has held the following positions, nationally and internationally :

- Member in the Islamic ministerial meeting in Pakistan (1988)
- Member of the technical committee for growing the forest along Gedaref Khartoum high way roads.
- Representative of the parliament in the Arab parliamentary union meeting in Abu Dhabi (1989)
- Representative of parliament in the national research council (1986 -1989)
- Former Member of agricultural research council
- Former Member of board of director Alsharg University
- Member of board of director Gedaref University
- Former Member of board of director of Agricultural Bank, Farmer bank and Sudan commercial bank.

Global Participations :

- North Africa and middle-east Telecentre leader forum (Cairo december 2006)
- Meeting in Eindhoven with the partners (DSE) and deliver speech in front Eindhoven council members
- The 2nd e-learning for Africa conference (Nairobi Kenya 2007)
- The 3rd East Africa Telecentre leader forum ( 3rd EATLF Seyaya Kenya 2007)
- E-India conference august 2007 and paper presenter New Delhi (India).
- UN-habitat day in Dan Hague (Netherlands October 2007)
- The 4th East Africa Telecentre leader forum ( 4th EATLF Kampala november 2007)
- ICT for disabled conference and paper presenter (Cairo november 2007 ITU & WHO)
- Web for develop conference and paper presenter( Nairobi Kenya november 2007 Un-habitat)
- Third global knowledge GK3 conference (Malaysia december 2007)
- ICT FOR DEVELOPMENT NOVATECH CONFERENCE (Ethiopia february 2008)
- The winner of information for development award (i4d 2007 awards) in e-India ( New Delhi august 2007)