

Aruna Sundararajan

Smt. Aruna Sundararajan is a senior Civil Servant, with over 2 decades of professional experience in Govt. She has held key administrative positions both in the Centre and the State and has been Director (Industries) and Secretary (Industries). She has a Bachelor's degree in Economics and a Master's in Philosophy, both awarded by the University of Madras. Smt. Sundararajan is an Economics Gold Medallist from the University of Madras. She has a wide range of interests including social work and voluntary service; and is also a trained classical dancer. Currently she is the Chief Executive Officer of Common Services Centre programme, Govt. of India.