

Ashis Sanyal, Sr. Director, Ministry of Communications and information & Technology, Gol

Ashis Sanyal is Director (e-Governance), Department of Information Technology. He started his professional career as an Engineer in the Ministry of Communications through Indian Engineering Services in 1975. Since 1982 worked in formerly Department of Electronics laboratories in the area of Electromagnetic Interference and Compatibility and Millimeter wave Electronics.

Current responsibilities are in the areas of implementation of e-Governance Projects related to various social and economic sectors in various States of India; responsible for drafting Govt. Policy Guidelines, Strategy and Framework for Core e-Governance Infrastructure related to e-Governance Services viz. Wide Area Network, Integrated Services Centres.