

Sri Ranjit Kumar Maiti, WBCS(Executive) representing the Department of Panchayats and Rural Development , Govt of West Bengal is a civil servant of 1978 batch. He had served the State Government in the capacities of Block Development Officer, Deputy magistrate and deputy Collector, District Planning Officer, Sub Divisional Magistrate, Administrative Officer of State ATI, Joint Director of Training and Research in State Institute of Panchayats and Rural Development , Kalyani. Thereafter he has been in the P&RD Dept and served as Deputy Secretary and Joint Secretary looking after the Computerisation of the Department and also the Panchayati Raj Institutions. He also heading the e- Gov team of the west Bengal State Rural Development Agency in the department. For the Common Services Centres project under the NeGP, Sri Maiti has been acting as the Nodal Officer of the State Designated Agency and with his initiative and cooperation of all concerned the State could sign the Master Services Agreement with the Service Centre Agency on 5th April 2007, the first in India.